4. Matters relating to the work programme for urgently scaling up mitigation ambition and implementation referred to in paragraph 27 of decision 1/CMA.3

18. Background: CMA 3 established a work programme to urgently scale up mitigation ambition and implementation in this critical decade and requested the SBSTA and the SBI to recommend a draft decision on this matter for consideration and adoption at CMA 4 in a manner that complements the global stocktake.⁹

19. Matters relating to this agenda item are considered under the SBSTA and the SBI.¹⁰

20. Action: The CMA will be invited to take any action it deems appropriate on the basis of the recommendations of the SBSTA and the SBI.

5. Reporting and review pursuant to Article 13 of the Paris Agreement

(a) Provision of financial and technical support to developing country Parties for reporting and capacity-building

21. Background: CMA 3 decided that this matter will be considered at CMA 4 and at each session thereafter. This will include consideration of the support provided to developing country Parties for reporting and related capacity-building under Article 13 of the Paris Agreement.¹¹

22. Action: The CMA will be invited to refer the consideration of such support to the SBI and to take any action it deems appropriate on the basis of the recommendations of the SBI.

(b) Options for conducting reviews on a voluntary basis of the information reported pursuant to chapter IV of the annex to decision 18/CMA.1, and respective training courses needed to facilitate these voluntary reviews

23. Background: CMA 3 requested the SBSTA to consider the options for conducting reviews on a voluntary basis of the information reported pursuant to decision 18/CMA.1, annex, chapter IV, and respective training courses needed to facilitate these voluntary reviews, including the associated budgetary considerations, with a view to recommending a draft decision for consideration and adoption at CMA 4.¹²

finance in order to promote linkages and coherence, and to prepare a biennial assessment and overview of climate finance flows drawing on available sources of information and including information on the geographical and thematic balance of such flows.²⁸

42. CMA 3 invited Parties, the operating entities of the Financial Mechanism, international financial institutions and other stakeholders in the financial sector to submit their views regarding ways to achieve Article 2, paragraph 1(c), of the Paris Agreement, including options for approaches and guidelines for implementation, and requested the SCF to submit a synthesis for consideration at CMA 4.²⁹

43. It also requested the SCF to continue its work on definitions of climate finance, taking into account the submissions received from Parties on the matter, with a view to providing input for consideration at CMA 4.³⁰

44. The President of CMA 3 recalled that consultations with groups and Parties on the matter of the review of the functions of the SCF were undertaken under his authority. He informed the CMA that Parties could not conclude consideration of the matter and that discussions will continue at CMA 4.³¹

45. Action: The CMA will be invited to consider the 2022 report of the SCF, the synthesis of views regarding ways to achieve Article 2, paragraph 1(c), of the Paris Agreement and the input on definitions of climate finance, and to take any action it deems appropriate. The CMA will also be invited to continue its consideration of the review of the functions of the SCF as part of the review referred to in decision 11/CP.25.

³⁷ Decision 4/CMP.16.

(e) New collective quantified goal on climate finance

53. Background: COP 21 decided that, in accordance with Article 9, paragraph 3, of the Paris Agreement, developed countries intend to continue their existing collective mobilization goal through 2025 in the context of meaningful mitigation actions and transparency on implementation, and that prior to 2025 the CMA shall set a new collective quantified goal from a floor of USD 100 billion per year, taking into account the needs and priorities of developing countries.³⁸

54. CMA 1 decided that the deliberations on setting a new collective quantified goal on climate finance would be initiated at CMA 3.³⁹ CMA 3 set out the arrangements for work to be conducted in 2022–2024, including:

(a) Establishment of an ad hoc work programme for 2022–2024;⁴⁰

(b) Submissions from Parties and non-Party stakeholders on the objectives and elements of the new collective quantified goal, on which the secretariat will prepare a technical paper;⁴¹

(c) High-level ministerial dialogues, starting in 2022 and ending in 2024, to provide guidance on the further direction of the ad hoc work programme for the following year;⁴²

(d) Stocktake of progress and further guidance on the ad hoc work programme from CMA 4, 5 and 6, taking into consideration the annual reports of the co-chairs of the ad hoc work programme and the summary reports on the high-level ministerial dialogues.⁴³

55. The CMA decided to conduct four technical expert dialogues per year as part of the ad hoc work programme.⁴⁴ The first dialogue in 2022 was held from 24 to 25 March in Cape Town, South Africa,⁴⁵ the second in conjunction with SB 56,⁴⁶ the third from 6 to 9 September in Mandaluyong City, Philippines,⁴⁷ and the fourth will be held in conjunction with CMA 4.

56. Action: The CMA will be invited to consider the annual report of the co-chairs of the ad hoc work programme and the summary of the deliberations at the high-level ministerial dialogue in its deliberations on the new collective quantified goal on climate finance and to take any action it deems appropriate.
