  - (a) Report of the Subsidiary Body for Scientific and Technological Advice;
  - (b) Report of the Subsidiary Body for Implementation.

<sup>1</sup> CMA 4 was held in conjunction with COP 27 and CMP 17. The proceedings of the COP and the CMP are contained in separate reports (FCCC/CP/2022/10 and FCCC/KP/CMP/2022/9 respectively). The proceedings of the joint meetings of the COP, the CMP and the CMA convened at the sessions are contained in the report of the COP and cross-referenced in the reports of the CMP and the CMA.

<sup>3</sup> On 26 September 2022, the secretariat issued document FCCC/PA/CMA/2022/1, containing the provisional agenda and annotations, prepared in agreement with the President of CMA 3 after consultation with the Bureau. On 30 September 2022, the secretariat issued document FCCC/PA/CMA/2022/1/Corr.1. On 28 October 2022, the secretariat issued document FCCC/PA/CMA/2022/1/Add.1 containing the supplementary provisional agenda. On 4 November 2022, the secretariat issued document FCCC/PA/CMA/2022/1/Add.2 containing the supplementary provisional agenda. On 4 November, the secretariat issued document FCCC/PA/CMA/2022/1/Add.3 containing the supplementary provisional agenda. Following extensive consultations during the pre-session week, the secretariat, in agreement with the President of CMA 3 and in consultation with the incoming President of CMA 4, on 6 November 2022 issued document FCCC/PA/CMA/2022/1/Add.4, containing the supplementary provisional agenda, which was presented for consideration and adoption by the CMA.

4. Matters relating to the work programme for urgently scaling up mitigation ambition and implementation referred to in paragraph 27 of decision 1/CMA.3.
5. Reporting and review pursuant to Article 13 of the Paris Agreement:
  - (a) Provision of financial and technical support to developing country Parties for reporting and capacity-building;
  - (b) Options for conducting reviews on a voluntary basis of the information reported pursuant to chapter IV of the annex to decision 18/CMA.1, and respective training courses needed to facilitate these voluntary reviews.
6. Matters relating to adaptation:
  - (a) Report of the Adaptation Committee;
  - (b) Review of the progress, effectiveness and performance of the Adaptation Committee;
  - (c) Glasgow–Sharm el-Sheikh work programme on the global goal on adaptation referred to in decision 7/CMA.3.
7. Warsaw International Mechanism for Loss and Damage associated with Climate Change Impacts.<sup>5</sup>
8. Matters relating to finance:
  - (a) Matters relating to the Standing Committee on Finance;
  - (b) Guidance to the Green Climate Fund;
  - (c) Guidance to the Global Environment Facility;
  - (d) Matters relating to the Adaptation Fund;
  - (e) New collective quantified goal on climate finance;
  - (f) Matters relating to funding arrangements responding to loss and damage associated with the adverse effects of climate change, including a focus on addressing loss and damage.<sup>6</sup>
9. Development and transfer of technologies and implementation of the Technology Mechanism:
  - (a) Joint annual report of the Technology Executive Committee and the Climate Technology Centre and Network;
  - (b) First periodic assessment referred to in paragraph 69 of decision 1/CP.21.
10. Capacity-building under the Paris Agreement.

  - (b) Statements by observer organizations.
19. Other matters.
20. Conclusion of the session:
  - (a) Adoption of the draft report on the session;
  - (b) Closure of the session.

5. The President welcomed the agreement of Parties to include the agenda item entitled “Matters relating to funding arrangements responding to loss and damage associated with the adverse effects of climate change, including a focus on addressing loss and damage” in the agendas for COP 27<sup>7</sup> and CMA 4 and expressed his appreciation to Jennifer Morgan (Germany) and Maisa Rojas (Chile) for their tireless work in conducting ministerial consultations on this matter. The President acknowledged that the inclusion of the agenda item reflects solidarity and empathy with the suffering of the victims of climate-induced disasters.

B. Election of additional officers

(Agenda sub-item 2(b))

6. The CMA considered this matter at its resumed 10th meeting, on 20 November. No election of additional officers was required.<sup>8</sup>

7. The President informed Parties that nominations for election to bodies under the Paris Agreement were outstanding and urged constituencies to continue consultations and submit the outstanding nominations to the secretariat as soon as possible and by 28 February 2023 at the latest. On the proposal by the President, the CMA agreed that once the outstanding nominations have been received by the secretariat, the nominees will be deemed elected at CMA 4 in accordance with established practice.

C. Organization of work, including for the sessions of the subsidiary bodies

(Agenda sub-item 2(c))

1. Referral of work to the subsidiary bodies and organization of the Conference

8. At the 1st meeting, the President proposed that the CMA follow the organization of work agreed by the COP.<sup>9</sup>

9. At the same meeting, the President informed Parties that the CMA would take appropriate action on the basis of recommendations of the SBSTA and the SBI on the following items on its agenda:

- Item 11 Matters relating to the least developed countries
- Sub-item 17(a) Audit report and financial statements for 2021
- Sub-item 17(b) Budget performance for the biennium 2020–2021

10. On a proposal by the President, the CMA agreed to refer to the SBI consideration of the provision of financial and technical support to developing country Parties for reporting and capacity-building – a matter under CMA 4 agenda item 5, “Reporting and review pursuant to Article 13 of the Paris Agreement”, and to refer to the SBSTA and the SBI consideration of the review of the progress, effectiveness and performance of the Adaptation Committee – a matter under CMA 4 agenda item 6, “Matters relating to adaptation”.

11. The President recalled that the secretariat had prepared document FCCC/PA/CMA/2022/4 on nationally determined contributions in response to decisions 1/CMA.3, paragraph 30, and 1/CMA.2, paragraph 10, and document FCCC/PA/CMA/2022/8 on long-term low-emission development strategies referred to in Article 4, paragraph 19, of the Paris Agreement in response to decision 1/CMA.3, paragraph 34.

12. The President informed Parties that he would convene consultations on the overarching decisions<sup>10</sup> at the level of heads of delegation, facilitated by senior representatives of the Presidency.

13. The President also informed Parties that on Thursday, 17 November, and Friday, 18 November, the CMA would reconvene to consider draft decisions and conclusions for adoption.

14. The CMA agreed to proceed on the basis of the information presented by the President.

2. Opening statements

15. On 6 November, a joint meeting of COP 27, CMP 17, CMA 4, SBSTA 57 and SBI 57 was held to hear opening statements.<sup>11</sup>

3. Informal stocktaking

16. During the Conference, the President convened four informal stocktaking plenaries, on 14, 15, 17 and 18 November,<sup>12</sup> with the aim of enhancing the openness, inclusiveness and transparency of the negotiations. During the informal plenaries, the President provided an assessment of progress and shared his plans for advancing work in order to reach successful outcomes.

17. At the first informal stocktaking plenary, the President stated that he would appoint co-facilitators to lead technical discussions on items forwarded by the subsidiary bodies at the conclusion of their sessions and items under the governing bodies, with the aim of completing technical work by Wednesday, 16 November.<sup>13</sup>

18. At the second informal stocktaking plenary, the President stated that he would appoint ministers to assist him in facilitating discussions on the matters that were ready for higher-level political engagement.<sup>14</sup>

4. Conclusion of work

19. At the 10th meeting, on 20 November, the President recalled that world leaders had gathered at the session under the theme “Together for Implementation” to deliberate on how to advance the global climate agenda and translate climate commitments into implementation. The President noted that the outcomes of the session provided a gateway to scaled-up implementation and transformation towards a future of climate neutrality and climate-resilient development. The President expressed his deep appreciation to Parties for their willingness to work constructively to deliver the achieved results.

20. At the resumed 10th meeting, on a proposal by the President, the CMA adopted decision 1/CMA.4, entitled “Sharm el-Sheikh Implementation Plan”.

21. Also at the resumed meeting, the President informed the CMA that no consensus had been reached in the Presidency consultations on including the following matters in the agenda for CMA 4:

(a) “Matters relating to Article 2, paragraph 1(c), of the Paris Agreement” – a matter proposed by France on behalf of the European Union and by Switzerland on behalf of the Environmental Integrity Group;

(b) “Seventh review of the Financial Mechanism” – a matter proposed by the United States of America;

(c) “Limiting global warming to 1.5 °C” – a matter proposed by Switzerland on behalf of the Environmental Integrity Group;

(d) “Implementation of decisions 1/CP.26, paragraph 11, and 1/CMA.3, paragraph 18, on adaptation finance” – a matter proposed by Pakistan on behalf of the Group of 77 and China.

Western European and other States	Jacob Werksman (United Kingdom)	Johan Pettersson (Sweden)
Small island developing States	Diane Tan (Singapore)	Rueanna Haynes (Trinidad and Tobago)

XVII. Administrative, financial and institutional matters

(Agenda item 17)

A. Audit report and financial statements for 2021

(Agenda sub-item 17(a))

B. Budget performance for the biennium 2020–2021

(Agenda sub-item 17(b))

103. At its 1st meeting, the CMA noted that these matters were on the agenda of the SBI.<sup>75</sup>

104. At its 9th meeting, on a proposal by the President, the CMA endorsed the following decisions of the COP:

(a) Decision 26/CP.27, entitled “Administrative, financial and institutional matters”;<sup>76</sup>

(b) Decision 27/CP.27, entitled “Administrative, financial and institutional matters”.<sup>77</sup>

XVIII. High-level segment

(Agenda item 18)<sup>78</sup>

XIX. Other matters

(Agenda item 19)

105. At the resumed 10th meeting, the President recalled that he had appointed Paul Watkinson (United Arab Emirates) to hold consultations on his behalf regarding the proposal by Zambia on behalf of the African Group to include in the provisional agenda for CMA 4 an item entitled “Special needs and special circumstances of Africa”, and to report back to the CMA, under this agenda item, on the outcomes of the consultations and any other issues raised.

106. The President informed the CMA of the following outcomes and issues raised:

<sup>75</sup> SBI 57 agenda item 23, “Administrative, financial and institutional matters”.

(a) Written inputs on this matter were received from Chile on behalf of the Independent Association for Latin America and the Caribbean and from the African Group;<sup>79</sup>

(b) Parties acknowledged the urgent and immediate needs of developing countries that are particularly vulnerable to the adverse effects of climate change, including the special needs and circumstances of Africa, and underlined the messages in the contribution of Working Group II to the Sixth Assessment Report of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change;<sup>80</sup>

(c) Parties expressed an interest in having a space to discuss wider needs and general matters related to the special circumstances of developing countries at the regional level; however, the President noted that this did not fulfil the purpose of the consultations, which was to consider the proposal to include an item on the special needs and circumstances of Africa in the agenda;

(d) Despite the constructive engagement of all Parties, there was no consensus on either the original proposal or any of the other proposals made during the consultations.

107. At the same meeting, a representative of one Party on behalf of the African Group made a statement requesting that the matter regarding the special needs and circumstances of Africa be considered at the next session of the CMA.<sup>81</sup> The President took note of the statement.

108. The CMA noted that no other matters had been raised under this agenda item.

XX. Conclusion of the session

(Agenda item 20)

109. At the joint 11th meeting of COP 27, CMP 17 and CMA 4, on 20 November, the President, the Executive Secretary and representatives of groups of Parties and observer organizations made closing statements.<sup>82</sup>

A. Adoption of the draft report on the session

(Agenda sub-item 20(a))

110. At its resumed 10th meeting, the CMA considered the draft report on the session<sup>83</sup> and, on a proposal by the President, authorized the Rapporteur to complete the report under the guidance of the President and with the assistance of the secretariat.

111. The Deputy Executive Secretary informed the CMA that the decisions it adopted under nine agenda items have financial and human resource implications beyond the provisions included in the budget for the biennium 2022–2023, and that funding estimates and categorization of activities are preliminary and based on the information available at the time:

(a) Under agenda sub-item 3(b), “Report of the Subsidiary Body for Implementation”, EUR 889,000 will be required in 2023 to to implement relevant activities of the action plan under the Glasgow work programme on Action for Climate Empowerment, including providing in the annual summary report under the Glasgow work programme information on materials, resources and findings as set out in the action plan. The same estimate was reported under the equally titled COP 27 agenda sub-item 3(b). This activity is recurring or long-term<sup>84</sup> and would therefore be funded from the core budget in future (post-2023) bienniums if approved by the appropriate governing bodies;

(b) Under agenda item 4, “Matters relating to the work programme for urgently scaling up mitigation ambition and implementation referred to in paragraph 27 of decision 1/CMA.3”, EUR 1.2 million will be required in 2023 to organize and prepare a report on work programme dialogues, including investment-focused side events. These activities are temporary or short-term and would therefore be funded from supplementary funds;

(c) Under agenda sub-item 5(b), “Options for conducting reviews on a voluntary basis of the information reported pursuant to chapter IV of the annex to decision 18/CMA.1, and respective training courses needed to facilitate these voluntary reviews”, EUR 467,000 will be required in 2023 to conduct voluntary reviews and develop and implement training courses. These activities are recurring or long-term and would therefore be funded from the core budget in future (post-2023) bienniums if approved by the appropriate governing bodies;

(d) Under agenda sub-item 6(c), “Glasgow–Sharm el-Sheikh work programme on the global goal on adaptation referred to in decision 7/CMA.3”, EUR 545,880 will be required in 2023 to hold all the workshops under the Glasgow–Sharm el-Sheikh work programme in person with the option for remote participants to actively take part. These activities are temporary or short-term and would therefore be funded from supplementary funds;

(e) Under agenda item 7, “Warsaw International Mechanism for Loss and Damage associated with Climate Change Impacts”, EUR 325,000 will be required in 2023 to support the process of selecting the Santiago network secretariat host, including the convening of an evaluation panel and assistance with the preparation of the evaluation report, as well as for continuing to provide support to developing countries that are particularly vulnerable to the adverse effects of climate change which may seek or wish to benefit from the technical assistance available from members of the Santiago network until the Santiago network secretariat is operational. In addition, EUR 575,000 will be required in 2023 to service and support the five-year rolling workplan of the WIM Executive Committee. The same estimate is provided under the equally titled COP 27 agenda item 7. Some of these activities are recurring or long-term and would therefore be funded from the core budget in future (post-2023) bienniums if approved by the appropriate governing bodies, and some are temporary or short-term and would therefore be funded from supplementary funds;

(f) Under agenda sub-item 8(f), “Matters relating to funding arrangements responding to loss and damage associated with the adverse effects of climate change, including a focus on addressing loss and damage”, EUR 1.8 million will be required in 2023 to support the activities of the transitional committee on the operationalization of the new funding arrangements for responding to loss and damage and the fund established in paragraph 3 of decision 1/CP.27, including at least three meetings, two workshops and two synthesis reports, one on existing funding arrangements and innovative sources relevant to addressing loss and damage and one on the outcomes of the activities and deliverables. It would additionally support ministerial consultations to be convened by the current and incoming COP Presidencies to advance the consideration of this matter at the next session. The same estimate is provided under the equally titled COP 27 agenda sub-item 8(f). These activities are temporary or short-term and would therefore be funded from supplementary funds;

(g) Under agenda item 12, “Report of the forum on the impact of the implementation of response measures”, EUR 459,000 will be required in 2023 to compile submissions from Parties as input to the global stocktake and to organize a regional workshop on activity 2 of the forum’s workplan. The same estimate is provided under the equally titled COP 27 agenda item 12 and CMP 17 agenda item 9. These activities are temporary or short-term and would therefore be funded from supplementary funds;
