I. Opening of the session

(Agenda item 1)

1. CMA 5, convened pursuant to Article 16, paragraph 6, of the Paris Agreement, was held at Expo City Dubai in Dubai, United Arab Emirates, from 30 November to 13 December 2023.<sup>1</sup> Sultan Ahmed Al Jaber (United Arab Emirates), President of CMA 5, opened the session.

II. Organizational matters

(Agenda item 2)

A. Adoption of the agenda

(Agenda sub-item 2(a))

2. At its 1st meeting,<sup>2</sup> on 30 November, the CMA considered document FCCC/PA/CMA/2023/1/Add.3 containing the supplementary provisional agenda. The President recalled the understanding reached among Parties on the adoption of the agendas for the sessions of the governing and subsidiary bodies, as outlined at the 1st meeting of COP 28.<sup>3</sup>

3. The President proposed that the supplementary provisional agenda for CMA 5 be amended to reflect this understanding, with sub-items 10(h–i) and items 16 and 19–23 deleted.

4. On the proposal by the President, the CMA adopted the agenda as follows:

1. Opening of the session.
2. Organizational matters:

B. Election of additional officers

(Agenda sub-item 2(b))

5. At the 1st meeting, the President informed the CMA that, as stated during the 1st meetings of COP 28 and CMP 18, Mohamed Nasr (Egypt) had begun consultations on the election of officers to bodies under the Convention, the Kyoto Protocol and the Paris Agreement.
6. The President invited regional groups and constituencies to submit all outstanding nominations by 9 December 2023. On a proposal by the President, the CMA decided to postpone the election until the closing plenary of CMA 5.
7. At the 6th meeting, on 13 December, the President informed the CMA that, since all nominees for the Bureau of COP 28 were also from Parties to the Paris Agreement, it would not be necessary to elect an additional member of the Bureau at the election taking place at the closing plenary of COP 28.<sup>5</sup>
8. The President also informed the CMA that nominations for election of officers to bodies under the Paris Agreement were outstanding and urged regional groups and constituencies to continue consultations and submit the outstanding nominations to the secretariat as soon as possible and by 29 February 2024 at the latest. On a proposal by the President, the CMA agreed that, once the outstanding nominations had been received by the secretariat, the nominees would be deemed elected at CMA 5 in accordance with established practice.

C. Organization of work, including for the sessions of the subsidiary bodies

(Agenda sub-item 2(c))

9. At its 1st meeting, on a proposal by the President, the CMA agreed to follow the organization of work agreed at the 1st meeting of COP 28.<sup>6</sup>
10. The President informed the CMA that the secretariat had prepared an update of the synthesis report on nationally determined contributions<sup>7</sup> and a synthesis report on long-term low-emission development strategies.<sup>8</sup>
11. The joint 2nd meeting of COP 28, CMP 18, CMA 5, SBSTA 59 and SBI 59, on 30 November, was convened to hear opening statements.<sup>9</sup>
12. At the joint 3rd meeting of COP 28, CMP 18 and CMA 5, on 1 December, the joint high-level segment was opened by the President. The first part of the high-level segment continued on 2 December, while the second part was held on 9 December.<sup>10</sup>
13. At the 6th meeting, the President recalled that, at the 1st meeting, as part of the understanding reached among Parties on the adoption of agendas referred to in paragraph 2 above, he had proposed to conduct consultations on the way forward regarding the following matters not to be included in the CMA agenda:
  - (a) “Special needs and special circumstances of Africa”:<sup>11</sup> the consultations were conducted by Federica Fricano (Italy) on 5 and 10 December. The outcomes of the consultations are reported under agenda item 18, “Other matters” (see para. 107 below);
  - (b) “Seventh review of the Financial Mechanism”:<sup>12</sup> throughout the consultations, which were conducted by Tosi Mpanu Mpanu (Democratic Republic of the Congo), Parties

31. The President invited Barbara Creecy (South Africa) and Dan Jørgensen (Denmark) to undertake ministerial consultations on cross-cutting issues relating to the global stocktake. In addition, the President requested the co-chairs of the subsidiary bodies joint contact group, Alison Campbell (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland) and Joseph Teo (Singapore), to prepare a third iteration of the textual building blocks on the global stocktake taking into account Parties' views and submissions on the second iteration.

32. Subsequently, also on 8 December, a meeting of heads of delegation was held to hear Parties' views on the third iteration of the textual building blocks.

33. At the 6th meeting, the President informed the CMA that, building on the work of the co-chairs of the subsidiary bodies joint contact group and ministers, extensive consultations had been conducted by the Presidency on the draft decision on this matter. The President expressed his sincere gratitude to all Parties for their engagement and guidance in this regard.

34. On a proposal by the President, the CMA adopted decision 1/CMA.5, entitled "Outcomes of the first global stocktake".

35. Subsequently, the President<sup>28</sup> and the UNFCCC Executive Secretary<sup>29</sup> made closing statements. In addition, statements were made by representatives of Parties and groups of Parties.<sup>30, 31, 32</sup>

V. Work programme on just transition pathways referred to in the relevant paragraphs of decision 1/CMA.4

(Agenda item 5)

36. At its 1st meeting, the CMA noted that this matter was on the agendas of the SBSTA and the SBI.<sup>33</sup>

37. At its 4th meeting, the President recalled that the subsidiary bodies had forwarded this matter to the CMA for further consideration.<sup>34</sup> The CMA agreed to further consider this matter. ## XVII. High-level segment

(Agenda item 17)<sup>75</sup>

XVIII. Other matters

(Agenda item 18)

107. At the 6th meeting, the President reported to the CMA on the outcomes of and any other issues raised at the consultations referred to in paragraph 13(a) above on the way forward regarding the proposal from Zambia on behalf of the African Group concerning the “special needs and special circumstances of Africa”,<sup>76</sup> as follows:

(a) Parties acknowledged that the Convention and the Paris Agreement recognize the urgent and immediate needs of developing countries particularly vulnerable to the adverse effects of climate change, including Africa;

(b) It was suggested to use existing spaces to discuss wider regional needs and general matters related to the special circumstances of developing countries at the regional level;

(c) Despite the constructive engagement of all Parties, there was no consensus on the original proposal.

XIX. Conclusion of the session

(Agenda item 19)

A. Adoption of the draft report on the session

(Agenda sub-item 19(a))

108. At its 6th meeting, the CMA considered the draft report on the session<sup>77</sup> and, on a proposal by the President, authorized the Rapporteur to complete the report on the session under the guidance of the President and with the assistance of the secretariat.

109. The secretariat informed the CMA that the decisions it adopted under some agenda items have financial and human resource implications beyond the provisions included in the budget for the biennium 2024–2025, noting that funding estimates and categorization of activities are preliminary and based on the information available at the time. Unless otherwise specified, all activities under the following items are categorized as temporary or short term:<sup>78</sup>

(a) Under agenda sub-item 2(c), “Organization of work, including for the sessions of the subsidiary bodies”, EUR 2.29 million will be required to support the work of the Presidency youth climate champions in 2024–2025, of which EUR 308,000 is to be covered from existing resources. This activity is categorized as recurring or long term;

(b) Under agenda item 4, “First global stocktake”, at least EUR 4.30 million will be required in 2024–2025 to hold dialogues and prepare reports. The budgetary implications
