I. Introduction

A. Mandate

1. In accordance with section III, paragraph 2(a), of the procedures and mechanisms,<sup>1</sup> the plenary of the Compliance Committee is to report on the activities of the Committee at each ordinary session of the CMP.

B. Scope of the report

2. The sixteenth annual report of the Committee covers the period from 13 November 2020 to 9 September 2021. It includes reports on its meetings held in 2021 and summaries of the work of and matters addressed by the Committee during the reporting period.

C. Vision and role of the Compliance Committee

3. The Committee welcomed the entry into force of the Doha Amendment to the Kyoto Protocol on 31 December 2020 and continued its operations under decisions 27/CMP.1 and 8/CMP.9. The enforcement branch considered and decided on several questions of implementation arising from the implementation of the Kyoto Protocol in the second commitment period. In particular, the enforcement branch noted that, with regard to the legal effect of various provisions, the questions of implementation under its consideration arose from unresolved issues pertaining to language of a mandatory nature in the provisions of the Protocol which continue to be in force, such as those under Articles 7–8.<sup>2</sup> The Committee will continue its mandated work with respect to implementation in the second commitment period, which underpins the implementation of pre-2020 mitigation action under the Protocol and supports global efforts to combat climate change.

4. The successful achievement by Parties included in Annex I of the quantified emission limitation and reduction commitments set out for the second commitment period of the Kyoto Protocol is of crucial importance to ambition and will help maximize pre-2020 ambition under the climate change regime. The status reports of the annual inventories for the last year of the second commitment period will be submitted in 2022 and reviewed towards the end of 2022 or at the beginning of 2023. All Parties included in Annex I will be reviewed in this cycle. At the 22nd meeting of the plenary of the Compliance Committee, the Committee requested the CMP to set a date for the completion of the expert review process under Article 8 of the Kyoto Protocol for the last year of the second commitment period. The Committee also sought guidance from the CMP on the continued operation of the compliance mechanism of the Kyoto Protocol, including on its modalities and procedures, in the second commitment period and the parameters of the true-up period,<sup>3</sup> particularly with respect to the consideration of questions of implementation arising from the review of the reports to be submitted to the secretariat by each Annex B Party upon expiration of the true-up period. The Committee will continue its work in accordance with the guidance provided by the CMP, taking into account any guidance on the eligibility of countries that have undertaken a target for the second commitment period but have not ratified the Doha Amendment.

D. Possible action by the Conference of the Parties serving as the meeting of the Parties to the Kyoto Protocol

5. According to section XII of the procedures and mechanisms, the CMP is to consider the annual report of the Committee. This report will be formally considered at CMP 16 along

23. The plenary noted that, following the entry into force of the Doha Amendment, it would continue its work in response to the mandates under decisions 27/CMP.1 and 8/CMP.8 as well as Articles 7–8 of the Kyoto Protocol with respect to the implementation of the second commitment period, and that it would consider questions of implementation arising from the review of the true-up period reports in accordance with the parameters of the true-up period set out by the CMP.

24. The plenary sought guidance from the CMP on the continued operation of the compliance mechanism of the Kyoto Protocol, including on its modalities and procedures, in the second commitment period and the parameters of the true-up period, particularly with respect to the consideration of questions of implementation arising from the review of the true-up period reports.

The plenary decided to invite CMP 17 to consider and adopt the approved amendments to the rules of procedure of the <sup>9</sup>Committee contained in annex II, which will be provisionally applied by the Committee until adoption.

B. Activities of the enforcement branch

26. In the reporting period, the enforcement branch did not receive any new questions of implementation and continued to consider the ongoing questions of implementation with respect to Monaco<sup>10</sup> and Kazakhstan<sup>11</sup> from the previous reporting period, welcomed the entry into force of the Doha Amendment and considered proposed amendments to the rules of procedure of the Committee.

27. In accordance with section III, paragraph 2(a), of the procedures and mechanisms, the progress reports submitted by Kazakhstan and Monaco during the reporting period are listed in annex I.

1. Question of implementation with respect to Monaco

28. Monaco, in accordance with section XV, paragraph 3, of the procedures and mechanisms, submitted its seventh progress report<sup>12</sup> on its compliance plan<sup>13</sup> on 14 January 2021. In this report, Monaco provided updated information on the entry into force of the legal provisions for data collection, as requested by the branch at its 35th meeting.

29. The enforcement branch reviewed this progress report and concluded that, on the basis of the information submitted by the Party prior to the meeting and presented before the branch at the meeting, which was considered by the branch, the question of implementation with respect to Monaco has been resolved. The branch noted that all measures described in Monaco's compliance plan have been implemented.

30. In accordance with section X, paragraph 2, of the procedures and mechanisms, the branch adopted a decision by electronic means on 8 February 2021 on the resolution of the question of implementation with respect to Monaco.<sup>14</sup>

2. Questions of implementation with respect to Kazakhstan

31. On 10 November 2020, during its 35th meeting, the enforcement branch adopted by consensus the preliminary finding<sup>15</sup> that Kazakhstan is not in compliance with the "Guidelines for the preparation of the information required under Article 7 of the Kyoto Protocol" (annex to decision 15/CMP.1 in conjunction with decisions 3/CMP.11 and 2/CMP.8), the "Guidelines for national systems for the estimation of anthropogenic greenhouse gas emissions by sources and removals by sinks under Article 5, paragraph 1, of the Kyoto Protocol" (annex to decision 19/CMP.1 in conjunction with decision 3/CMP.11), the methodological and reporting requirements contained in decisions 2/CMP.8, 3/CMP.11 and 15/CMP.1, and the national registry requirements contained in decision 13/CMP.1, annex, chapter II, in conjunction with decision 3/CMP.11. The enforcement branch did not receive any further submissions from Kazakhstan.

32. On 13 January 2021, the enforcement branch adopted by electronic means the final decision<sup>16</sup> with respect to Kazakhstan, which confirmed the preliminary finding.

33. In accordance with paragraphs 24 and 29 of the preliminary finding and paragraph 6 of the final decision, the first progress report was to be submitted by Kazakhstan, in accordance with section XV, paragraph 3, of the procedures and mechanisms and the decision on the review and assessment of the compliance plan,<sup>17</sup> no later than 31 January 2021, with subsequent progress reports to be submitted periodically thereafter, at least once every six months, to address the questions of implementation raised in the 2017 ARR, 2017 in-depth review report and 2019 ARR, and the recommendations of the enforcement branch contained in the review and assessment of the compliance plan.

34. Kazakhstan submitted its first progress report<sup>18</sup> on 22 February 2021. Kazakhstan's second progress report was submitted on 12 August 2021.<sup>19</sup>

35. At its 36th meeting, the enforcement branch considered the first and second progress reports submitted by Kazakhstan in accordance with paragraph 29 of the preliminary finding and paragraph 6 of the final decision. Representatives of Kazakhstan participated in the meeting, making a presentation on the progress reports and answering questions from the branch.

36. The enforcement branch noted with appreciation the progress of Kazakhstan, as described in its first and second progress reports and the presentation made by its representatives at the 36th meeting of the branch, in addressing the questions of implementation. The branch looks forward to receiving information in further progress reports and in the national inventory report of Kazakhstan to be submitted in 2022 that will allow the questions of implementation to be resolved in the near future.

3. Other matters

37. The enforcement branch welcomed the entry into force of the Doha Amendment and engaged in a discussion on its work on matters related to the second commitment period.

38. The enforcement branch considered the proposed amendments to the rules of procedure of the Committee to enable members and alternate members to remain in office until their successors have been elected and to allow for the intersessional replacement of members and alternate members.

C. Activities of the facilitative branch

39. Following the deliberations at its 23rd meeting, the facilitative branch agreed to continue the reviews of the ARRs as per the practical working arrangements decided at its 22nd meeting, which included improvements to the working modalities of the working groups that would review the ARRs to enhance their efficiency and coordination, including improvements to the “General Analysis and Overview” guiding tool developed in 2019 to review the reports.

40. In this reporting period, the secretariat distributed the review reports to the members and alternate members of the facilitative branch for their consideration, in accordance with section VI, paragraph 3, of the procedures and mechanisms. The secretariat also continued to maintain an electronic platform, which the working groups used to share their analyses and suggestions. However, the Committee was unable to conduct any reviews during the reporting period owing to the challenges associated with meeting virtually as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. The Committee agreed to continue the review of the 2020 and 2021 ARRs in the subsequent reporting period.

41. At its 24th meeting, the facilitative branch noted the conclusion of the second commitment period of the Kyoto Protocol and the implications for the work of the branch. The branch discussed how it could build on experience in applying the “General Analysis and Overview” guiding tool and develop working arrangements that will enhance its efficiency in reviewing the remaining 2020 ARRs and the 2021 ARRs. The branch viewed the following arrangements as being beneficial to maximizing efficiency: distributing the reports among three working groups, each comprising a mix of experienced and new members and alternate members; engaging with the working groups during their discussions on the reports; and dedicating more time during the meetings of the branch to discuss the outcomes of the reviews.

42. At its 23rd meeting, the facilitative branch considered developing a compendium of best practices and lessons learned while fulfilling its mandate to provide advice and facilitation to Parties in implementing the Kyoto Protocol. At its 24th meeting, a member of the branch presented a draft outline of the compendium with a view to the branch collectively developing the document. The compendium will consolidate the findings and analysis of the branch on ways to identify issues in implementing the Kyoto Protocol that are persistent or significant, or both, and whose resolution may benefit from the branch’s facilitation or advice. The branch decided the compendium will take the form of an update to the ‘experience document’ prepared in 2017.<sup>20</sup> The branch also decided to share best practices and lessons learned in reviewing ARRs with other relevant UNFCCC constituted bodies, in particular the Paris Agreement Implementation and Compliance Committee.

43. Recognizing the expiration of the maximum term of four years allocated to its members and alternate members, the facilitative branch noted the importance of assisting new members and alternate members in building their experience through an induction session to be held early in the year following their election.

44. The branch welcomed the entry into force of the Doha Amendment and considered the proposed amendments to the rules of procedure of the Committee to enable members and alternate members to remain in office until their successors have been elected and to allow for the intersessional replacement of members and alternate members.

45. The branch shared its views on meeting virtually and expressed a strong preference for in-person meetings, noting their importance for new members and alternate members in particular. The branch acknowledged that, despite the preference for in-person meetings, the evolving global situation resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic may require the branch to meet virtually or hold hybrid meetings with members attending in person and alternates attending virtually.

D. Budget for the work of the Compliance Committee

46. For the biennium 2020–2021, the Committee notes that, as part of the overall core budget of the Legal Affairs division, funds have been foreseen for only one (in-person) meeting of the Committee per year.<sup>21</sup>

47. Owing to the virtual format of meetings of the Committee in 2020 and 2021 as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, an estimated EUR 100,000 was saved in meeting and travel costs of the branches and plenary.

48. The plenary took note of the information provided by the secretariat on funding and staffing for the current and next biennium.
