The Conference of the Parties,

Recalling Articles 4 and 11 of the Convention,

Also recalling decisions 12/CP.2, 12/CP.3, 1/CP.16, paragraph 112, 2/CP.17, paragraphs 120–121, 5/CP.18, 5/CP.19, 7/CP.19, 6/CP.20, 6/CP.21, 8/CP.22, 7/CP.23, 8/CP.23, 4/CP.24, 11/CP.25, 5/CP.26, 14/CP.27, 5/CMA.2, 10/CMA.3 and 14/CMA.4,

Taking note of decision -/CMA.5,¹

1. Welcomes with appreciation the work of the Standing Committee on Finance in 2023;
2. Notes the 2023 report of the Standing Committee on Finance,² endorses the workplan of the Committee for 2024³ and underlines the importance of the Committee focusing its work on its current mandates;
3. Notes the technical report by the Standing Committee on Finance on clustering types of climate finance definitions in use,⁴ including the executive summary thereof,⁵ and also notes the information therein on the clustering of elements aimed at assisting Parties in developing and applying definitions of climate finance and the discussions of the Standing Committee on Finance regarding a potential update to the operational definition of climate finance of the Committee;
4. Further notes the complexities, in relation to accounting of and reporting on climate finance at the aggregated level, associated with the application of the variety of definitions of climate finance in use by Parties and non-Party stakeholders;
5. Welcomes that the sixth Biennial Assessment and Overview of Climate Finance Flows will contain a section compiling the operational definitions of climate finance in use;
6. Requests the Standing Committee on Finance to consider updating, in the context of its sixth Biennial Assessment and Overview of Climate Finance Flows, its operational definition of climate finance, building on the non-exhaustive list of potential options identified in paragraph 44(a–c) of the executive summary referred to in paragraph 3 above;
7. Also requests the Standing Committee on Finance to prepare a report on common practices regarding climate finance definitions, reporting and accounting methods among Parties and climate finance providers, building on the information in the technical report and executive summary thereof referred to in paragraph 3 above, for consideration by the Conference of the Parties at its twenty-ninth session (November 2024);
8. Endorses the general outlines of the technical report of the sixth Biennial Assessment and Overview of Climate Finance Flows, of the second report on the determination of the needs of developing country Parties related to implementing the Convention and the Paris Agreement, and of the second report on progress towards achieving the goal of mobilizing jointly USD 100 billion per year to address the needs of developing countries in the context of meaningful mitigation actions and transparency on implementation;⁶

9. Notes that the sixth Biennial Assessment and Overview of Climate Finance Flows will continue to consider the balance between mitigation and adaptation finance and public and private financial flows;

10. Welcomes the successful conduct of the 2023 Forum of the Standing Committee on Finance on financing just transitions and notes the summary thereof;⁷

11. Expresses gratitude to the Governments of Australia and Thailand and the United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific for their financial, administrative and substantive support for the 2023 Forum of the Standing Committee on Finance;

12. Welcomes accelerating climate action and resilience through gender-responsive finance as the topic for the 2024 Forum of the Standing Committee on Finance and accelerating climate action and resilience through financing for sustainable food and agricultural systems as the topic for the 2025 Forum;

13. Notes with concern that the draft guidance for the operating entities of the Financial Mechanism prepared by the Standing Committee on Finance was not considered owing to a limited number of submissions and requests Parties and other constituted bodies under the Convention and the Paris Agreement to provide elements for the draft guidance well in advance of future sessions of the Conference of the Parties and the Conference of the Parties serving as the meeting of the Parties to the Paris Agreement to enable the Committee to fulfil its mandate in this regard;

14. Notes the self-assessment report of the Standing Committee on Finance⁸ and the technical paper by the secretariat on the second review of the functions of the Standing Committee on Finance⁹ and encourages the Committee to consider the opportunities for improving its efficiency and effectiveness identified therein;

15. Notes with appreciation the efforts of the Standing Committee on Finance to strengthen its engagement with stakeholders in the context of its workplan, including the constituted bodies and private entities and other entities outside the UNFCCC process, and encourages the Committee to continue such efforts in 2024, including, as appropriate, with people and communities on the front line of climate change, including Indigenous Peoples and local communities;

16. Also encourages the Standing Committee on Finance to continue to enhance its efforts to ensure gender responsiveness in implementing its workplan and requests Parties to consider gender balance and geographical representation when nominating members to the Committee;

17. Expresses appreciation to the European Union and the Governments of Japan and Switzerland for their financial contributions for the work of the Standing Committee on Finance and to the Governments of Austria, Switzerland and Thailand for hosting the meetings of the Committee in 2023;

18. Requests the Standing Committee on Finance to report to the Conference of the Parties at its twenty-ninth session on its progress in implementing its workplan for 2024;

19. Also requests the Standing Committee on Finance to consider the guidance provided to it in other relevant decisions of the Conference of the Parties.
