SUBMISSION FROM BRAZIL

SBI requested that interim arrangements be taken:

(a) Private and public legal entities seeking to participate in the mechanisms pursuant to Articles 6, 12 and 17 of the Kyoto Protocol shall be required to give their formal declaration that any disputes, complaints or claims relating to an application for or participation in projects under the mechanisms must be brought in accordance with COP/MOP Decisions and be made at the headquarters of the secretariat;

(b) In case of a claim or complaint presented, the Executive Secretary must request, as appropriate, the establishment an ad hoc Special Review Team (SRT) in the constituted bodies under the Kyoto Protocol;

(c) Each SRT shall be composed by three members of respective constituted bodies with the mandate to analyse complaints or claims against individuals serving on the above mentioned bodies;

(d) The SRT shall provide, as appropriate, a comprehensive technical assessment of all aspects of the decision previously taken and inform the interested party about the new decision taken;

(e) If private and public legal entities are not satisfied with new decision taken, they could brought the claim or complaint to a final and binding dispute settlement arrangement pursuant the headquarters of the secretariat.
