Special Announcements

Panama City Tour The Ministry of Foreign Affairs is offering participants guided tours, in Spanish and English, through Casco Antiguo de Panama. Please contact the Panama information desk in the foyer for information on the departure and return time of the Panama City tour.

Announcements

Availability of meeting rooms The demand for meeting rooms is expected to exceed the capacity of the conference premises and priority will be given to meetings directly associated with the negotiating process. The secretariat appreciates participants' understanding in this connection. Meetings will therefore only be confirmed at the earliest one day prior to the requested meeting taking place.

Conference brochures	In line with the secretariat's efforts towards climate neutrality, the conference brochures "Information for Participants" and "Side Events and Exhibits Brochure" are available in electronic format only at: http://unfccc.int/ . The secretariat encourages all participants to support this initiative by refraining from printing, or printing only the required information if necessary.
Use of audio/video recording devices by participants at UNFCCC sessions	The making of audio and video recordings, including any external transmission, by Party or observer organization delegations during open and closed official meetings and in designated security zones is not permitted. The secretariat provides audio recordings of official meetings, as required by Parties. Webcasts are provided for open plenary meetings and press conferences.
Meditation room	The Meditation Room is located on the first floor of the ATLAPA Convention Centre, behind meeting room "Panamá".
Webcasts of the sessions	For the duration of the sessions, all official meetings and press conferences will be available live and on demand, with English or floor audio streams. On-demand files will be available shortly after the close of each meeting.
Climate Change Publications Counter	Publications that are clearly attributed to a Party or an admitted observer organization that is not exhibiting may be distributed and displayed at the Climate Change Publications Counter, after approval. The counter is located on the ground floor in the foyer of the ATLAPA conference center. For approval, please provide a sample to the Observer Organizations Liaison Team at the Conference Affairs Services Office. The counter cannot manage large volumes, but will assist in changing the range of documents on display. Organizers of Exhibits are requested to display and distribute documents at their own booths.

Online Services@Panama Besides classical website information on <http://unfccc.int/>, the secretariat is offering the mobile version of the UNFCCC website <http://mobile.unfccc.int/> and the official iPhone/iPad application 'Negotiator' for the conference.

Using the iPhone/iPad application 'Negotiator', users can:

- get logistical information about the conference (directories, venue maps, etc.);
- read the latest documents, agendas and meeting information;
- view the latest YouTube videos and photos from the conference;
- join the conference via the Facebook and Twitter channels.

Please note: The iPhone/iPad app, 'Negotiator' can be downloaded for FREE via iTunes app store: <http://unfccc.int/iphoneapp/>.

The secretariat is offering a special online reporting service to the media. On a daily basis, an online video will be made available on the website <http://unfccc.int/> summarizing the secretariat's daily press briefing. This video can be viewed and downloaded for Podcast. The secretariat is encouraging online media to link to the online video. All videos can be found on YouTube.com/climateconference and iTunes.

Community tools, such as Facebook, Twitter and Flickr will allow to participate and to respond to the conference in Panama. All links can be found on the Panama conference page on <http://unfccc.int/>.

Medical and security Emergencies For medical emergencies, please contact the first aid personnel in the Emergency Room located on the first floor of the ATLAPA Convention Centre between meeting rooms “Panamá” and “Bocas”, just before the entrance to “Foyer Teatro Anayansi”.

For other emergencies, please contact United Nations security staff (wearing either a United Nations uniform or an armband) located at the entrance or call:

On-site Security Duty Officer:

Tel: +507 6749 7358

Security Participants should ensure that they wear their conference badge in full view at all times, as the security officers may request them to verify their identity. This may lead to some inconvenience, but it is expected that participants will appreciate the need for such arrangements.

Building fire regulations In order to ensure compliance with building fire regulations, UN Security may ask participants to refrain from accessing meeting rooms or vacate meeting rooms if the room capacity is full. Thank you for your cooperation.

Lost and found items Participants are reminded not to leave personal belongings in meeting rooms. The Security office, located next to the Registration Desk in the lobby of the conference center, is responsible for lost and found items.

Pigeonholes for delegates Pigeonholes for the distribution of official documents and messages, which delegates are kindly requested to check at regular intervals, are located next to the Documents Distribution counter. Participants are requested to refrain from distributing non-official material via the pigeonholes.

Delegation nameplates Delegates are kindly requested not to remove country nameplates from the meeting rooms. The secretariat is unable to replace these at short notice and this can lead to serious disruptions at meetings.

Facilities for observer organizations The business and industry non-governmental organizations (BINGOs) and the environmental non-governmental organizations (ENGOs) constituencies have offices located on the first floor of the ATLAPA conference center.
