High-level side event

Mobilizing Long-term Climate Finance for Developing Countries

Wednesday, 7 December 2011
13.00–14.00 (Safsaf Willow)
Open to Parties and Observer States and Observer Organizations
Open to Press

Secretariat contact: Ms. Marcela Main mainm@un.org

The Secretary-General, together with H.E. Mr. Jens Stoltenberg, Prime Minister of Norway, invite delegates to a high-level side event on “Mobilizing Long-term Climate Finance for Developing Countries”.

The report of the Secretary-General’s High-level Advisory Group on Climate Change Financing (AGF), released in 2010, and the joint report on “Mobilizing Climate Finance” discussed at the G20 in October 2011, presented options to mobilize long-term finance.

The event will discuss how to take those options forward. The event will include a question-and-answer session open to the public.

Announcements

The full information in this section is available in the "Information for Participants" and "Side Events and Exhibits" brochure at <unfccc.int>.

Condolence Book for Mr. Mama Konaté

The secretariat would like to inform all delegates that a book of condolence for the passing away of Mr. Mama Konaté, former chair of Subsidiary Body for Scientific and Technological Advice has been opened.

The book will be available daily until the end of the conference for those wishing to offer expressions of condolence and signatures.

It is located at the entrance of Hall 3 on the right hand side. This Hall is situated between Meeting room Sweet Thorn and King Protea.

The condolence books will be delivered to Mr. Konate's family following the closure of the conference.

Additional temporary Foreign Exchange/Banking facility

In order to alleviate the queues at the First National Bank facilities on the lower level, an additional temporary Foreign Exchange/Banking (BIDVEST) facility has been set up behind the interpreters lounge, next to the Yellowwood Room on the ground floor of the ICC. The hours of operation are from 08.00–18.00.

Use of photo and video cameras by participants

All participants are reminded of the guidelines which limit the use of photo and video cameras in Plenary halls and other areas by persons other than designated photographers or media. These guidelines are intended to help maintain a good working environment for the conduct of business in Plenary halls and other areas, and ensure that walkways are kept free for the circulation of participants and safety services.

Announcement of official side events

The information on side events is available on the UNFCCC official website, CCTV and posterboards in Durban Exhibition Center (DEC). Participants are kindly requested to consult the CCTV monitors for changes or updates. Participants are reminded that official side events coordinated by the secretariat are not included in the Addendum to the Daily Programme issued on 28 November 2011 <Information Note 17 November 2011 http://unfccc.int/parties_and_observers/notifications/items/3153.php>.

Security

Participants should ensure that they wear their conference badge in full view at all times, as the security officers may request them to verify their identity. This may lead to some inconvenience, but it is expected that participants will appreciate the need for such arrangements.

Lost and found items

Participants are reminded not to leave personal belongings in meeting rooms. The Security office, located adjacent to the main entrance, is responsible for lost and found items.

Key contacts

The information in this section is available in the "Information for Participants" brochure at <unfccc.int>.

Events

Descriptions of the events listed below have been reproduced as received, and without formal editing. The secretariat would like to note that the scheduling of events remains dependent upon the demands of the negotiating process.

Due to the safety and fire regulations, the temporary structures of some of the rooms in Durban Exhibit Center (DEC) cannot be completely sealed with sound proof materials. Technical staff will adjust the sound level according to the noise level of the neighboring rooms. We apologize for the inconvenience this will cause. We thank you for your cooperation.
