Subsidiary Body for Implementation

Thirty-fourth session

Bonn, 6–16 June 2011

Agenda item 12

Development and transfer of technologies

Development and transfer of technologies

Draft conclusions proposed by the Chair

1. The Subsidiary Body for Implementation (SBI) noted the oral report by the Global Environment Facility (GEF) and expressed its appreciation to the GEF and its agencies, the United Nations Development Programme and the United Nations Environment Programme on the progress made in carrying out the Poznan strategic programme on technology transfer.¹

2. The SBI welcomed the progress made in providing technical and financial support to assist 36 Parties not included in Annex I to the Convention (non-Annex I Parties) in developing and updating their technology needs assessments (TNAs). The SBI noted that many non-Annex I Parties expressed their interest to conduct or update their TNA. The SBI recommended that the Conference of the Parties at its seventeenth session, invite the GEF to continue to provide financial support to other non-Annex I Parties as appropriate to conduct or update their TNAs, noting the availability of the updated handbook Conducting Technology Needs Assessments for Climate Change.²

3. The SBI welcomed the progress made by the GEF in providing support for piloting priority technology projects as part of the Poznan strategic programme. The SBI noted that the pilot project proposals submitted by non-Annex I Parties and supported by the GEF included only one project on technologies for adaptation. The SBI also noted the importance of projects on technologies for adaptation, including on the development and strengthening of local knowledge, and invited the GEF, Parties and relevant organizations in a position to do so to provide financial support for project proposals, including those for pilot projects, of the types supported by the Poznan strategic programme related to technologies for adaptation.

4. The SBI recalled the conclusions of its thirty-second session inviting the GEF to provide half-yearly progress reports on the implementation of the activities receiving support under the Poznan strategic programme.³ It invited the GEF to provide reports on the
