Capacity-building under the Convention for developing countries

[The Conference of the Parties,

Recalling decisions 2/CP.7, 2/CP.10, 4/CP.12, 1/CP.16, 2/CP.17 and 13/CP.17,

Recognizing the success of the first meeting of the Durban Forum for in-depth discussion on capacity-building (Durban Forum), held during the thirty-sixth session of the Subsidiary Body for Implementation,

Also recognizing the important role that the Durban Forum plays in enhancing the monitoring and review of the effectiveness of capacity-building,

Having considered the information contained in the documents prepared by the secretariat to facilitate deliberations at the Durban Forum¹ as well as the summary report on its first meeting,²

Expressing its appreciation to Parties and representatives of intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, including civil society, and the private sector for their active participation in the first meeting of the Durban Forum for the sharing of experiences and exchanging ideas, best practices and lessons learned regarding the implementation of capacity-building activities,

1. Takes note with appreciation of the summary report of the first meeting of the Durban Forum;

2. Reaffirms that for further enhancement of the monitoring and review of the effectiveness of capacity-building the Durban Forum is an appropriate arrangement to share experiences and exchange ideas, best practices and lessons learned regarding the implementation of capacity-building activities with the participation of Parties, representatives of the relevant bodies established under the Convention and relevant experts and practitioners;

2 bis. Decides to enhance and build on the work of the Durban Forum in order to further enhance the monitoring and review of the effectiveness of capacity-building [and establish its work plan to further enhance the monitoring and review of the effectiveness of capacity-building];

[2 ter. Decides that such a work plan should be finalized and be adopted at the nineteenth session of the Conference of the Parties;]

3. Invites Parties to submit to the secretariat, by 18 February 2013, the following:

(a) Information on the activities that they have undertaken pursuant to decisions 2/CP.7, 2/CP.10, 1/CP.16 and 2/CP.17 including inter alia, such elements as needs and gaps, experiences and lessons learned;

(b) Views on specific thematic issues relating to capacity-building under the Convention in developing countries to be considered at the second meeting of the Durban Forum to be held at the thirty-eighth session of the Subsidiary Body for Implementation and on the organization of that meeting;

² FCCC/SBI/2012/20.

Option 1: (c) Views on [potential improvements in the organization of the Durban Forum] and [possible elements of a work [schedule of the Durban Forum] plan on capacity-building];

Option 2: (c) Views on potential improvements in the organization [modalities and operation] of the Durban Forum

4. Invites Parties to submit the information referred to in subparagraph 3 (a) and [views referred to in sub paragraphs 3 (b) and (c) above] as part of their annual submissions in accordance with decision 4/CP.12;

4 bis. Also invites intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations and the private sector to submit to the secretariat, by 18 February 2013 information on the activities that they have undertaken in their support for the implementation of the capacity-building frameworks including their experiences and lessons learned;

5. Encourages representatives of the relevant bodies established under the Convention, operating entities of the financial mechanism of the Convention, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, and relevant experts and practitioners to participate fully in subsequent meetings of the Durban Forum and further encourages them to integrate information gained and produced, as appropriate;

6. Requests the Subsidiary Body for Implementation:

(a) To take into account the views expressed in the submissions referred to in paragraph 3 (a) and (b) above in organizing the second and subsequent meetings of the Durban Forum;

[(b) To consider the submissions referred to in paragraph 3 (c) above, with a view to preparing recommendations on the matter for consideration by the Conference of the Parties at its nineteenth session];

7. Also requests the secretariat to continue to prepare the reports referred to in decision 2/CP.7, paragraph 9 (c) and decision 4/CP.12, paragraph 1 (c), as well as the compilation and synthesis reports referred to in decision 2/CP.17, paragraph 146 and 150, and to make such reports available to the Subsidiary Body for Implementation at its sessions coinciding with the meetings of the Durban Forum, in order to facilitate deliberations at those meetings.]

Appeals mechanism

[The Conference of the Parties serving as the meeting of the Parties to the Kyoto Protocol,

Recalling decisions 2/CMP.5, paragraph 42, and 3/CMP.6, paragraph 18,

Recalling also decisions 2/CMP.1 and 3/CMP.1,

Cognizant of its decisions 4/CMP.1, 5/CMP.1, 6/CMP.1, 7/CMP.1, 1/CMP.2, 2/CMP.3 and 2/CMP.5,

Recognizing the importance of timely and effective decision-making by the Executive Board of the clean development mechanism on issues related to project activities,

Emphasizing the importance of consistency and correctness in the application of the modalities and procedures of the clean development mechanism,

Wishing to provide for an independent, impartial, fair, equitable, transparent and efficient mechanism to enable review of the decisions of the Executive Board of the clean development mechanism,

1. Approves and adopts the procedures and mechanisms relating to appeals against decisions of the Executive Board of the clean development mechanism, as contained in the appendix to this decision;
2. Also agrees that appeals may be brought before the appeals body³ at the earliest six calendar months following the adoption of this decision;
3. Also agrees that appeals may be brought before the appeals body only with regard to decisions of the Executive Board concluded following the adoption of this decision;
4. Requests the Subsidiary Body for Implementation to consider the experience gained with the appeals mechanism referred to in paragraph 1 with a view to proposing recommendations for modifications or adjustments, if necessary, for consideration by the Conference of the Parties serving as the meeting of the Parties to the Kyoto Protocol at its twelfth session.

³ Name to be determined.

Appendix

Procedures, mechanisms and institutional arrangements for appeals against the decisions of the Executive Board of the clean development mechanism

PART I: THE APPEALS BODY

I. Establishment and powers

1. An appeals body is hereby established that considers appeals against decisions of the Executive Board of the clean development mechanism (CDM) regarding the [approval,] rejection or alteration of requests for the registration of project activities and the issuance of certified emission reductions (CERs).
2. The appeals body shall report annually to the Conference of the Parties serving as the meeting of the Parties to the Kyoto Protocol (CMP) on its deliberations.
3. Subject to the provisions of this decision, taking into account the recommendations made by the CDM Executive Board (hereinafter, Executive Board) in document FCCC/KP/CMP/2010/10, the appeals body shall establish the procedure governing appeals, for consideration and approval by the CMP at its ninth session. The appeals body shall also develop its operational modalities on matters relating to the organization of its work, including procedures for the protection of proprietary or confidential information and code of conduct.

II. Membership

4. Option A

The CMP shall elect 30 members to the appeals body roster [as follows: [X] member[s] from each of the five United Nations regional groups, [X] member[s] from Parties included in Annex I, [X] member[s] from Parties not included in Annex I and [X] member[s] from small island developing States].

Option B

The CMP shall elect 30 members to the appeals body roster as follows: three members from each of the five United Nations regional groups, six members from Parties included in Annex I, six member[s] from Parties not included in Annex I and three members from small island developing States.

Options C

The CMP shall elect 30 members to the appeals body roster as follows: four members from each of the five United Nations regional groups, four member[s] from Parties included in Annex I, four members from Parties not included in Annex I and two members from small island developing States.

Option D

The CMP shall elect 30 members to the appeals body roster as follows: five members from each of the five United Nations regional groups, two members from Parties included in Annex I, two members from Parties not included in Annex I and one member from small island developing States.

Option E

The CMP shall elect 30 members to the appeals body roster as follows: six members from each of the five United Nations regional groups.

5. Members shall be elected for a period of four years and shall be eligible to serve a maximum of two consecutive terms. In order to ensure continuity, half of the members shall be elected initially for a term of two years and the remaining members shall be elected for the full term of office. Members of the appeals body shall remain in office until their successors are elected.

6. Each constituency referred to in paragraph 4 above shall endeavour to conduct a rigorous selection process in order to ensure that the nominees meet the criteria set out in paragraph 8 below.

7. In making nominations, Parties are invited to recall decision 36/CP.7 and give active consideration to the nomination of women.

8. To be eligible for election as a member, a person shall:

(a) Be of high standing and moral character;

(b) Possess relevant experience in international law, administrative law [environmental and socio-economic fields] [or in the field of the CDM].

9. A member of the appeals body shall not be a member of the Executive Board, a member or employee of its support structure, designated operational entity or designated national authority, and shall not have served on the Executive Board or in its support structure for at least seven years prior to his or her appointment to the appeals body. Members of the appeals body shall not be eligible to serve on the Executive Board of the CDM or in its support structure within for a minimum of two years following the completion of their service on the appeal body.

10. A member of the appeals body may resign by notifying the CMP through the Executive Secretary. The resignation shall take effect 60 calendar days from the date of notification.

11. The appeals body may suspend a member in the event of incapacity or misconduct, including breach of the provisions related to conflict of interest as set out in chapter III below, breach of the provisions related to confidentiality of information as set out in chapter IV below or a failure to attend two consecutive meetings without proper justification, pending consideration of the matter by the CMP.

12. A member of the appeals body may be removed by the CMP only for the reasons outlined in paragraph 11 above.

13. In the event that a member becomes unable to serve on an appeal for which he or she was originally selected, another member shall be selected to replace him or her in accordance with the procedure set out in paragraph 21 below.

14. Members of the appeals body shall be remunerated for their time spent on consideration of appeals in the amount of [XXX].

III. Impartiality and independence

15. A member of the appeals body shall serve in his or her personal capacity and shall enjoy full independence.

16. A member of the appeals body shall swear an oath that he or she shall be independent and impartial, shall avoid direct or indirect conflicts of interest and shall respect the confidentiality of proceedings before the appeals body.

17. Should any direct or indirect conflict of interest arise, the member concerned shall immediately recuse himself or herself from the appeal in question.

IV. Internal management

18. Decisions, other than in the context of individual appeals, such as those referred to in paragraphs 3 and 19 of this annex, shall be made by the full membership of the appeals body. For such decisions, [20][15] members [representing a majority of members from Parties included in Annex I and a majority of members from Parties not included in Annex I,] must be present to constitute a quorum. Decision shall be taken by consensus, whenever possible. If all efforts at reaching consensus have been exhausted and no agreement has been reached, decisions shall be taken by a majority vote of the members present and voting [and the main reasons for the objections must be reflected in the final report]. Members abstaining from voting shall be considered as not voting.

19. The appeals body shall elect its [own Chair and Vice-Chair] [two Co-Chairs, one from Parties included in Annex I and one from Parties not included in Annex I,] for the term of two years.

20. Appeals shall normally be heard by a panel of three members and shall be decided by a majority vote.

21. The members constituting a panel shall be selected on a random basis.

22. The internal discussions, deliberations and voting on, and drafting of, the decision by a panel during an appeal proceeding shall be confidential.

V. Collegiality

23. The members shall remain informed of the decisions, modalities and procedures concerning an appeal as well as the relevant modalities and procedures of the CDM.

24. To ensure consistency and coherence in decision-making, and to draw on the individual and collective expertise of the members, the members of the appeals body should convene once a year to discuss matters of policy, practice, procedure and other relevant matters relating to appeals. Such meetings shall not be held unless three quarters of the members agree to participate. After finalizing its decision, the ad hoc panel responsible for an appeal shall share its reasoning with the other members of the appeals body.

PART II: GENERAL ISSUES

VI. Transparency and confidential information

25. The decisions of the appeals body shall be issued in writing and shall state the reasons, facts and rules on which they are based.

26. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 22 above and 27 below, the decisions of the appeals body with regard to individual appeals shall be communicated to the entities involved in the appeal and to the Executive Board, and shall be made publicly available.

27. As a general rule, information obtained by the appeals body marked as proprietary or confidential shall not be disclosed without the written consent of the provider of the information, unless the appeals body determines that, in accordance with the CDM modalities and procedures, such information cannot be claimed proprietary or confidential. Provisions with regard to confidential information contained in decision 3/CMP.1, annex, paragraph 6, shall be applicable to the workings of the appeals body.

VII. Administrative and financial support

28. The secretariat of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change shall make the administrative arrangements necessary for the functioning of the appeals mechanism.

29. Staff members of the secretariat assigned to assist the appeals body in the carrying out of its functions [related to the implementation of this decision] shall be independent and impartial, shall avoid direct or indirect conflicts of interest and shall respect the confidentiality of the proceedings before the appeals body.

30. [Reasonable expenses associated with the establishment and overhead costs of the appeals mechanism shall be borne out of the share of proceeds for the clean development mechanism and shall be allocated in a way that ensures the independence and impartiality of the mechanism [and on the basis of a management plan for the mechanism to be developed by the appeals body]. The expenses associated with the consideration of appeals shall be funded through the fees in accordance with paragraph 43 below.]

VIII. Working language

31. The working language of the appeals body shall be English.

PART III. CONSIDERATION OF APPEALS

IX. Grounds for appeal

32. The appeals body shall be competent to decide on an appeal within the scope of its powers, as set out in paragraph 1 above, on whether the Executive Board:

- (a) Exceeded its jurisdiction or competence;
- (b) Committed an error in procedure, such as to materially affect the decision in the case;

(c) [Incorrectly] interpreted or applied one or more CDM modalities and procedures [in a way that [is unreasonable] and, if done differently, would have resulted in a materially different outcome;

(d) [Clearly] erred on a question of fact available to the Executive Board at the time of it reaching its decision, [in a way that [is unreasonable] [and, if done differently, would have resulted in a materially different outcome]];

(e) In reconsidering its decision on remand pursuant to paragraph 34 below, rendered a decision that is inconsistent with the judgement of the appeals body [on the same request for registration or issuance or with the previous ruling of the Executive Board with regard to that request].

33. Subject to provisions of this decision, the appeals body shall establish, in a transparent manner, the criteria for admissibility of appeals.

X. Decisions and orders

Option A

With respect to decisions relating to the grounds of review stipulated in paragraph 32 above, the appeals body may affirm a decision of the Executive Board or remand it back to the Executive Board for reconsideration.

Option B

With respect to decisions relating to the grounds of review stipulated in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of paragraph 32 above, the appeals body may affirm or reverse a decision of the Executive Board.

With respect to decisions relating to the grounds of review stipulated in paragraphs (d) and (e) of paragraph 32 above, the appeals body may affirm, reverse or remand a decision of the Executive Board.

35. Decisions of the appeals body shall be final and binding on the entities referred to in paragraph 38 below and on the Executive Board.

36. In the interests of fairness and orderly procedure, the appeals body may issue procedural orders as necessary and appropriate to assist the functioning of an appeal proceeding.

XI. The record

37. Any document or oral evidence that was available to the Executive Board in connection with its consideration of the decision being appealed shall constitute the record for the appeal in question. The complete record pertaining to the decision of the Executive Board being appealed shall be made available to the appeals body not later than seven calendar days of the receipt of the appeal by the secretariat.

XII. Commencement of an appeal

38. Any Party, project participant [or Designated Operational Entity] directly involved in [or stakeholder or organization referred to in decision 3/CMP.1, annex, paragraph 40(c), which has submitted comments with regard to] a CDM project activity or a proposed CDM project activity with respect to which the Executive Board has [registered or] made a rejection or alteration decision relating to the registration of such a project activity or the issuance of CERs (“petitioners”) may file, individually or jointly, a petition for appeal against such a decision.

39. Multiple appeals can be filed against the same decision, so long as no single petitioner is a signatory to more than one appeal.

40. A petition for appeal [shall be filed no later than seven weeks] [may be filed at any time] after the decision of the Executive Board has been made publicly available.

XIII. Time limits

41. As a general rule, the appeals proceedings shall not exceed 90 calendar days from the date a petition is received by the appeals body to the date it issues its final decision.

42. The Executive Board shall reach a decision reconsidered on remand in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 34 above at its first meeting, which will take place at least after 21 calendar days after the receipt of the remand.

XIV. Filing fee

43. Taking into account the costs of the appeals process and the need to deter frivolous appeals, the filing of an appeal shall be subject to a reasonable and not prohibitively expensive fee.]
