Information on the panel discussions during the high-level segment

The high-level segment of COP 10 includes four panel discussions, which are the mode for exchanges between ministers and other heads of delegation.

Arrangements

The panel discussions will be convened in one of the plenary halls. Each delegation will have one seat at the microphone and one adviser seat behind. There will also be overflow seating in the room. Observers may attend the panel discussions which will also be broadcast on the CCTV monitors and on the web.

Opening presentations

For each panel discussion, the panel moderator will make an opening statement. The panel members will then be invited to offer their views.

Interventions from the floor

Following the opening presentations, the floor will be opened for comments by ministers and other heads of delegation. Parties should raise their flags to indicate their interest in making a contribution.

Due to the short time available, ministers and heads of delegation are invited to provide short and focused commentaries of no more than three minutes.

The four panels

The President of COP 10 has invited representative groupings of panellists and moderators to participate in the following four panel discussions:¹

- (1) The Convention after 10 years: accomplishments and future challenges
