2002 UNFCCC commemorative calendar

All participants are invited to collect a free copy of the 2002 UNFCCC commemorative calendar 'Responding to Climate Change' from the area next to the Documents distribution counter. The calendar commemorates the signing of the Convention in 1992 and shows how artists from fourteen countries visualize climate change, and how twelve international and regional organizations, governments and non-governmental organizations that sponsored the calendar are responding to the challenge. The calendar provides background information on the Convention and the Kyoto Protocol and notes key dates from the Convention process. The calendar is published by ENTICO Ltd in London in cooperation with the German graphic artist Helmut Langer.

Climate Change Kiosk

Participants are encouraged to visit the Climate Change Kiosk, located in the main foyer, for:

Climate change information sources

Background information on the climate change process and the secretariat

Who's doing what in the process

Who's doing what in the secretariat

How to contact members of the secretariat

How to obtain access to, or copies of, secretariat information products or services

A special feature of the Climate Change Kiosk is the small area where participants may showcase a video, document or CD-ROM. The Climate Change Kiosk is equipped with a documents stand (for displaying one copy only of each participant's document), a video player, a television and a PC. Staff at the Climate Change Kiosk will gladly run each participant's video or include a document on the document display.

OTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS

Security

Enhanced measures have been put in place to ensure the safety and security of conference participants. Consequently, they are requested to co-operate with the security team if they are requested to verify their identity. This may lead to some inconvenience at times, but it is expected that participants will understand the need for such arrangements. To this end, participants should ensure that they wear their conference badges in full view at all times.

Parking authorization

Participants who are authorized parking permits are kindly requested to contact the Security office next to the Information desk at the main entrance (Tel.: 044-44-94-14).

Lost and found items

Before departing, participants are reminded that various lost and found items have been handed in at the Security office (Tel.: 044-44-94-14). The items include a documents holder, two pairs of spectacles, two keys, a VISA card, money, a pen holder, note book, make-up bag and a watch.

Facilities for non-governmental organizations

Offices and meeting rooms for the environmental groups, business and industry organizations and the local non-governmental organizations are located in the basement of the Hotel Atlas.

Information for participants

A booklet detailing the various facilities and services available to participants may be obtained from the Information desk.

GIE facilities and services

GIE has organized restaurant facilities and a VIP lounge bar in the COP 7 village outside the Palais des Congrès. GIE is also able to offer varied programmes of optional excursions and guided city tours. (Tel.: 061-25-42-63).

GIE will have a stand at the Hotel Atlas for delegates needing to settle their bills. They also have a stand at the Information desk in the Palais des Congrès.
