OTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS

Removal of exhibits and brochures

At the close of the conference, non-governmental organizations are requested to remove their brochures and publications from tables. If participants do not wish to take home their materials, please dispose of them in the waste paper bins provided. All posters, labels and other announcements put up on pillars, walls and panels, etc. must also be removed.

Facilities for non-governmental organizations

Offices for the business and industry organizations (BINGOs), environmental groups (ENGOS) and local non-governmental organizations (local NGOs) are located on the first floor of the Annex as follows:

BINGOs	Room 272
ENGOS	Room 274
Local NGOs	Room 275

Meetings of non-governmental organizations

Business and industry groups will meet between 9 a.m. and 10 a.m. in Hall G.
Environmental groups will meet between 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. in Hall 4.

Security

Enhanced measures have been put in place to ensure the safety and security of conference participants. Consequently, they are requested to co-operate with the security team if they are requested to verify their identity. This may lead to some inconvenience at times, but it is expected that participants will understand the need for such arrangements. To this end, participants should ensure that they wear their conference badges in full view at all times.

Lost and found items

Participants are reminded not to leave personal belongings in meeting rooms. The Security office, located near the entrance to the main building, is responsible for lost and found items.

Participants are requested to reclaim the following lost items that have been handed in at the Security office:

- CD-ROM drive for a laptop computer
- three personal information diaries
- a key
- seven delegate bags
- documents
- spectacle case
- small leather-bound address book

Meditation room

A room for meditation and prayer is available to participants on the first floor of the conference centre. Those who wish to use this facility should go to the Information desk, where they will be given appropriate directions.

Pigeonholes for delegates

Pigeonholes for the distribution of official documents and messages are located in the documents distribution area, which delegates are kindly requested to check at regular intervals. Messages may also be placed on the message boards in the foyers of the ground floor, first floor and second floor of the main building and on the ground floor of the Annex. Participants are requested to refrain from distributing non-official material via the pigeonholes. All such material should be placed on the tables specially designated for this purpose.

School activities on climate change

The National Museum of Natural History has organized various competitions and activities for the school children of New Delhi to coincide with COP 8, in order to sensitize them to the important issues related to climate change. One of the activities - a signature campaign - expresses their solidarity and concerns about climate change. Various government officials joined their campaign. Some of the colourful canvas rolls containing the signatures are displayed on the walls of the atrium of Vigyan Bhawan.

Children's cartoon display

Display of children's cartoons related to climate change on the grassy area beside the Registration tent. Organized by the Centre for Science and the Environment.

Climate Expo: climate change and sustainable development

Participants are invited to visit Climate Expo, an exhibition on climate change and sustainable development, organized by the Ministry of Environment and Forests and the Confederation of Indian Industry on the lawns of the Ashok Hotel between noon and 8 p.m. Special coaches have been arranged from the Vigyan Bhawan and the India Habitat Centre to the exhibition venue and back at regular intervals, starting at 11.30 a.m.

Joint implementation learning experience

Participants are invited to take part in the joint implementation (JI) learning experience on the ground floor outside the Plenary hall, anytime during the day. The learning experience, in the form of a game, projected into the year 2008 and with the Kyoto Protocol in force, gives participants insight into the joint implementation project cycle. Organized by the Swedish Energy Agency.

Cottage Industries Emporium

Participants may wish to consider visiting India's largest handicraft emporium, the Cottage Industries Emporium in Janpath, New Delhi, which is open from 10 a.m. until 7 p.m. daily (including the weekend).
