Implementation milestones and status of work

* MVP – minimum viable product

- Initial market research was conducted in H1 of 2023, including with respect to service providers operating for the financial market
- The high-level requirements have been completed and will undergo internal review
- Procurement is being initiated

Due to dependency on future decisions:

- The technical design will provide for flexibility to define specific rules at a later point in time, including on an on-going basis during operation
