

Glasgow–Sharm el-Sheikh work programme on the global goal on adaptation

Mandated work from Glasgow

(including events, workshops, reports, submissions, etc.)

By 30 April 2022

Parties are invited to submit via the submission portal views on how to achieve the objectives of the work programme referred to in paragraph 7 of decision 7/CMA.3, upon which the secretariat will subsequently prepare a compilation and synthesis report, and the SB Chairs will select themes for the work programme

As of SB 56

Four workshops will be conducted per year, with the support of the secretariat and under the guidance of the SB Chairs, namely two virtual intersessional workshops and two workshops in conjunction with the SB sessions

At SB 56

The IPCC is invited to inform the work programme by presenting the findings of the upcoming contribution of Working Group II to its AR6 that may be relevant to reviewing overall progress made in achieving the GGA

Coinciding with the sessions of the CMA – SB 57 and SB 59

The secretariat will prepare, under the guidance of the SB Chairs, a single annual report on the workshops for consideration at the SB sessions

At CMA4 and CMA 5

The subsidiary bodies are invited to report annually to the CMA, taking into account the single annual report on workshops referred to in para 16 of decision 7/CMA.3 on progress in implementing the work programme, with a view to recommending a draft decision thereon for consideration and adoption by CMA 4

Carried out jointly by the SBSTA and SBI with contributions of the current and incoming COP Presidencies, the AC, IPCC WGII, as appropriate, and other relevant constituted bodies and experts
