MESSAGE TO PARTIES AND OBSERVERS

Timely submission of views and inputs for the current calls for submissions

On behalf of the Chairs of the subsidiary bodies, I wish to remind Parties and observers to the Convention, the Kyoto Protocol and the Paris Agreement, United Nations and related organizations and specialized agencies, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations admitted as observers and other non-Party stakeholders of the importance of making submissions within their respective deadlines. Submissions are key inputs to official documents or in the preparation for mandated events, and thus late submissions can often lead to delays in the secretariats' publication of documents and event organization.

Therefore, please ensure that submissions are made within the mandated deadline, noting that those made after such deadlines may not be taken into account. Submissions can be made via the UNFCCC submission portal.

The following calls have deadlines in the coming months of this year:

Matters relating to the forum on the impact of response measures:

- Views on possible topics for the global dialogues on the impacts of the implementation of response measures in 2024¹.
- Deadline 15 July (Note: The secretariat experienced technical issues with the portal. Although the deadline has passed, Parties, observers, and non-Party stakeholders are encouraged to submit their views until 22 July)
