Joint message from the Chairs of the Subsidiary Bodies

Dear Colleagues,

It is with pleasure that we share with you our scenario notes for the upcoming fifty-seventh sessions of the Subsidiary Body for Scientific and Technological Advice (SBSTA) and the Subsidiary Body for Implementation (SBI), which will take place in Sharm el-Sheikh, Egypt, from Sunday, 6 November, to Saturday, 12 November 2022.

The scenario notes have been published on the UNFCCC session web pages for SBSTA 57 and SBI 57, respectively. We have prepared our respective scenario notes under our own responsibility to reflect on the achievements at, and developments since, the fifty-sixth sessions of the Subsidiary Bodies (SB 56) and to provide an overview of the expected work at SB 57 and how we intend to organize it.

The scenario notes offer guidance for working efficiently, effectively and transparently at the sessions and provide information on the status of and proposed approach to the work for SB 57 for the many agenda items on the provisional agendas, including items considered jointly by the SBSTA and the SBI, and the mandated events.

It is not our intention to prejudge or limit any approach that Parties may take, and we hope that these notes will prove useful to them in preparing for the sessions and that they will allow us to undertake fruitful pre-session consultations and adjust the suggested approaches as appropriate and guided by Parties.

We look forward to collaborating with you all in Sharm el-Sheikh.

Yours sincerely,

(Signed by)

Marianne Karlsen
Chair of the Subsidiary Body for Implementation
