

Donor country European Union
Project/programme title Euro-Asian Research and Training in Climate Change Management (CLIMA), 2005
Purpose To enhance the capabilities of professors and researchers to create an international thematic network on Climate Change and Sustainable Development, to relate scientists, policy makers and stakeholders from the EU and Asia on the issues of global impacts determined by local development practices.
Recipient country Regional Asia	Sector Capacity building, research	Total funding €0.73 million	Years in operation 2006–2009
Description The overall objective of the project is to create a knowledge system on climate change and sustainable development linking Asia with Europe as well as to contribute towards the Millennium Development Goals
Indicate factors that led to project's success The project intends to achieve this objective by <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ implementing a modular training programme for scientists,</li> <li>▪ initiating joint and interdisciplinary research groups on different topics,</li> <li>▪ elaborating a curriculum for a prospective online master course on climate change and sustainable development,</li> <li>▪ disseminating of promotional material to a wider community.</li> </ul>
Technology transferred Capacity building, research
Impact on greenhouse gas emissions/sinks A positive impact has been made through this project but it is currently not measurable			